California Transparency in Supply Chains Act Statement	January 1 st , 2026 – Dec 31 st , 2026
Dates Covered:
Authorized Company Representative:	Brad Blankenship, Technical Manager, Sigma Stretch Film

In 2010 the state of California passed California law S.B. 657 – the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2010. This law requires manufactures and retailers doing business in California to disclose the steps they are taking to eradicate slavery and human trafficking from the supply and distribution chain for the products they sell.

This letter is to certify that Sigma Stretch Film does not use slave labor or participate in human trafficking nor do we purchase raw materials from vendors who participate in such activities.
